Welcome!

The first step in applying for a U.S. nonimmigrant visa is to complete your application. It takes approximately 90 minutes to do this. After you submit your application, you can move on to the next steps such as scheduling your interview.

Important: Before You Start

1. Learn about _Types of Visas._
2. Use only Internet Explorer 11 or higher, Firefox, or Google Chrome 58 when completing your application. _Safari and Microsoft Edge are not supported._
3. _Gather your documents._
4. Review the _instructions_ and _FAQ._

Notes:

Other people can assist you with your visa application. Note that under U.S. law (22 C.F.R. 41.103) you must electronically sign and submit your own application unless you qualify for an exemption. Even if someone else helped you complete the application, you (the applicant) must click the "Sign Application" button, or your application may not be accepted.

Please be patient as you use this form. Download times may vary depending on your internet connection speed.

Application Information

Privacy Act

AUTHORITIES: The information sought is pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §§ 1201-1202.

PURPOSE: The information solicited on this form will be used by consular officers to determine an applicant's eligibility for a visa.

ROUTINE USES: The information on this form may be shared with federal, state, and local government agencies, members of Congress, and officials of foreign governments in accordance with certain approved routine uses. More information on the Routine Uses for the system can be found in the System of Records Notice State-39, Visa Records.

DISCLOSURE: Although providing this information is voluntary, failure to provide the information requested on this form may result in the applicant's inability to receive an immigrant or nonimmigrant visa.

☑ I have read the terms of the Privacy Act Notice

Please record your Application ID in a safe and secure place.

If there are technical issues with the system, or you want to complete your application some other time, you can save your work and later, start where you left off. In order to access your application later, however, you will need: (1) your Application ID, and (2) the answer to the security question that you will choose on this page.

Your Application ID
is: AA009RYIGF

Date
14-JUL-2020

Print Application ID

To choose a security question, pick the one you like the best from the dropdown list, type your answer to that question in the box below, and click "Continue." Remember: In order to access your application later, you will need to know the answer exactly as you wrote it on this page.

You can also use your Application ID and security question to retrieve your Confirmation Page after you have submitted your application, or to use your previously provided application information to complete a new application at a later date.

If you do not plan to complete your application within the next 30 days, download your application to your computer by clicking the "Save" button at the bottom of the last completed page. Follow the instructions. When you are ready to complete your application, select "Upload an Application". NOTE: Only download your application to a computer that cannot be accessed by anyone who does not have your permission to see or record your personal data. If you download your application a shared or public computer, such as a computer in a cyber café or library, your personal information may be able to be accessed by other users.

Note: Electronically submitting your DS-160 online application is the FIRST STEP in the visa application process. The next step is to review the internet page of the embassy or consulate where you plan to apply for your visa. Most visa applicants will need to schedule a visa interview, though some applicants may qualify for visa renewal. The embassy or consulate information may include specific local instructions about scheduling interviews, submitting your visa application, and other frequently asked questions.
